online orders and integration into enterprise resource planning and ecommerce accounting applications, such as QuickBooks Online, Oracle and SAP. iApp4Tax as Avalara transitions to provide end-to-end solutions, allowing SaaS systems to integrate within each other.

“The new iApp4Tax integration application developed by MuleSoft and Avalara delivers tax-to-accounting/ecommerce connectivity in days, versus weeks or months,” said Chris Purpura, Vice President and General Manager for Mule iON Cloud Integration Platform at MuleSoft. “This offering works with a wide range of accounting systems, including Oracle, SAP, QuickBooks Online, and more. Based on the Mule iON cloud integration platform, we are helping drive the success of SaaS providers like Avalara and their customers by taking the pain and cost out of application integration.”
