Our newest generation of our Practice Management software with its integrations and client portal has been completely redesigned and rewritten. With this we have added integrations with Outlook, QuickBooks, Lacerte, Adobe and others to revolutionize small and mid-size accounting and tax firms.

With the latest technologies and graphics design we have updated our single screen interface that works in concert with a firm's workflow. Firms find incredible efficiencies in their day-to-day duties. From owners to every staff member an entire firm can reap the benefits of using our newest release.

Information is always in one place from basic tasks of tracking phone call and appointments to due date tracking and billings. This eliminates the need for multiple applications, screens and databases.

For managers, all staffing information, all client history and the status of all workflow is contained in the same single screen interface.

Offices can track their tax and accounting workflow and its related time whether
