

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us time.

Taija Sparkman • Apr. 11, 2012

Small businesses lack continuous insight into their finances and that is their number one mistake at tax time, according to a survey conducted by Xero, the maker of beautiful accounting software. The survey polled 500 accountants and found that many small businesses only talk to an accountant when it's time to prepare and file taxes each year.

Approximately 25 percent of the accountants surveyed prefer ongoing

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us over Sunday brunch. The result is key business decisions get made long before tax time.”

In addition to the top mistakes small businesses make during tax season, the infographic below also shows the most commonly overlooked deductions. The top three overlooked deductions were home office, new employees and travel expenses.

Taxes

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved