Solution to Customers

nGenx and SmartVault Partnership

Taija Sparkman • Jun. 15, 2012

SmartVault, provider of Software as a Service document storage and sharing solutions, nGenx, provider of application hosting and virtualization services to small and medium businesses, announced today they have teamed up to offer nGenx customers a more effective document management solution.

Through this partnership, SmartVault will now be available to all of nGenx customers and they can easily transition their business to the cloud. Other benefits include 24/7 access to all application and files within the cloud and the ability to scan and attach documents and emails directly to QuickBooks transactions using the SmartVault Toolbar. In addition, SmartVault supports the file types that nGenx customers currently work with, such as Microsoft office files, making it easier to transition from desktop software.

SmartVault and nGenx are offering a free trial period for customers to test the two
