Waldron H. Rand & Company, P.C., one of the oldest public accounting firms in Massachusetts, is celebrating its 100th anniversary this year.

Taija Sparkman • Jul. 19, 2012

One of the oldest public accounting firms in Massachusetts is turning 100 years old this year. Waldron H. Rand & Company, P.C. was founded in 1912 by Waldron H. Rand, founding member and president of the Massachusetts Society of Certified Public Accountants and president of the American Institute of CPAs' predecessor.

"Reaching 100 years is a great milestone for Waldron Rand," said William L. Kams, Waldron Rand Shareholder & President. "Founder Waldron H. Rand's service philosophy and dedication to the continual advancement of the industry is embedded in the firm's culture today. This tradition of excellence is why Waldron Rand is the oldest practicing public accounting firm in Massachusetts."

In honor of the firm's 100th anniversary, Waldron Rand has launched a firm-wide charity campaign, the Centennial Community Challenge. As part of the challenge, employees and their families are asked to give back to the community by volunteering 1912 hours. Currently, Waldron Rand has reached almost 1,000 volunteer hours, serving organizations such as:

- Alzheimer's Association
- Birthday Wishes
- Boston College Legal Clinic
- Codman Community Farms
- Dana Farber Cancer Center
- Elizabeth Stone House
- Great Hall Performance Series
- Greater Boston Food Bank
- Jimmy Fund

- Luz y Vida
