Bisk Education has released its CPEasy Fall 2012 Catalog to help accounting and finance professionals complete their continuing education credits in time for the December deadline. The new catalog features new and updated courses in tax reform and other critical issues.

“When it comes to meeting CPE deadlines, Bisk CPEasy is a CPA’s greatest ally,” said Valerie Wendt, Product Manager. “We understand the challenges CPAs face in keeping up with their everyday workloads while meeting CPE deadlines. CPEasy makes it easier to stay on top of the latest critical information, with new courses released daily on CPEasy.com. We’re committed to helping professionals not only obtain must-have knowledge and industry updates, but to complete their CPE requirements as easily and conveniently as possible.”

CPEasy has more than 300 programs in a variety of formats, including online, live webcasts, textbooks, audio CD and video DVD. Bisk also offers unlimited access to its online programs with CPEasy OnDemand. Professionals can access instant quizzes and grading from anywhere, anytime.

CPEasy courses cover a range of topics, including auditing, accounting, taxation, ethics and consulting services. Professionals can earn up to 40 credit hours per course and all courses are approved by NASBA and QAS.
