Real Business Solutions (www.PayrollMate.com), a payroll and 1099 solution provider, is helping small businesses and tax professionals comply with the changes to the California withholding tax tables introduced by the Employment Development Department (EDD) starting January 1, 2013.

The California UI taxable wage limit for 2013 is $7,000 per employee, per year. The UI tax rate for new employers is 3.4 percent (.034) for a period of two to three years. The UI tax rate for experienced employers varies based on each employer's experience and the balance in the UI Fund. The 2013 maximum UI weekly benefit award is $450. The 2013 ETT rate is 0.1 percent (.001) of the first $7,000 per employee, per year. The 2013 SDI withholding rate, which includes Disability Insurance (DI) and Paid Family Leave (PFL), is 1.0 percent (.01). The SDI taxable wage limit is $100,880 per employee, per year.

Payroll Mate calculates California Unemployment Insurance (UI) Tax, Employment Training Tax (ETT), State Disability Insurance (SDI) Tax and California Personal Income Tax (PIT) Withholding. All users of Payroll Mate 2013 will get the new payroll updates for free. The software maker is also advising small businesses that are still doing payroll by hand to start using a payroll software solution, which offers serious benefits, from increased payroll preparation efficiency to tangible cost savings.
