Porte Brown LLC, www.PorteBrown.com, a Chicago-area firm providing accounting, audit, tax, technology and wealth management services, has announced that Geneva Knight, CPA, CCIFP has been admitted as Partner.

Knight brings more than fourteen years of experience in her new role on Porte Brown's accounting and consulting services team in the Elk Grove Village office. She provides tax consulting and accounting services for individuals and closely held businesses and is also one of the leaders of Porte Brown's Audit, Not-for-Profit, and Construction Practice Groups.

Knight graduated from Bradley University with a B.S. in Accounting. She is a member of the Illinois CPA Society and currently serves on the Palatine Chamber of Commerce and belongs to the Federation of Woman Contractors. Knight grew up in Crystal Lake, IL, and now resides in Chicago.

"Genevra is a dedicated, ambitious member of the Porte Brown team. In addition to her supervisory and client management responsibilities, she is also the partner-in-charge of our paperless audit process and the firm's quality control procedures," said Bruce Jones, Managing Partner. "Genevra brings a tremendous understanding of the issues our clients face and a strong commitment to professional excellence."

Porte Brown, which now employs more than 75 people, has more than doubled its size over the past five years, by acquiring seven firms through friendly acquisitions, and by providing outstanding, value-added services to its clients in the fields of manufacturing and distribution, construction, not for profit, professional services, individuals and grocery and food services.
