

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

The American Institute of CPAs recently announced its scholarship applications for the 2013-2014 academic year are now open.

“The AICPA is committed to ensuring that qualified students can get the education

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

The available scholarships include:

- AICPA/Accountemps Student Scholarship – 10 scholarships awarded to undergraduate and graduate students
- AICPA John L. Carey Scholarship – 10 scholarships awarded to students with a non-business major pursuing graduate studies in accounting
- AICPA Scholarship for Minority Accounting Students – 80+ scholarships awarded to minority undergraduate and/or graduate students

“To me, the value of an AICPA scholarship doesn't lie solely in meeting a student's financial needs,” said Ronald Dukes, a 2012-2013 Scholarship for Minority Accounting Students recipient and a Master's of Accountancy student at Villanova University. “This scholarship has provided me with inspiration and passion to impact a positive change in the accounting profession and to set an example for my peers to follow.”

Accounting

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved