

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

personal income

A childhood friend and business partner of Democratic State Rep. William F. Keller whose Philadelphia sporting goods shop sold campaign T-shirts, hats, and other products to local and national politicians was indicted Tuesday on federal charges that he underreported his business receipts and personal income by nearly $500,000 over four years.

Jan. 30, 2013

A childhood friend and business partner of Democratic State Rep. William F. Keller whose Philadelphia sporting goods shop sold campaign T-shirts, hats, and other products to local and national politicians was indicted Tuesday on federal charges that he underreported his business receipts and personal income by nearly $500,000 over four years.

The U.S. Attorney's Office in Philadelphia also charged Mark C. Olkowski of North Wildwood with 15 counts of wire fraud, saying he allegedly collected $25,000 in improper unemployment benefits while receiving income from K & O Sporting Goods in South Philadelphia.

Olkowski allegedly failed to report more than $250,000 in gross business receipts from K & O from 2006 through 2009. He underreported his personal income by more than $237,000, according to the indictment.

Olkowski, 62, could not be reached for comment. His partner in K & O is Keller, who also could not be reached. Keller's attorney has denied any wrongdoing by his client.

The charges against Olkowski are the second round of federal action following an August 2010 raid by the FBI and IRS on K & O, Keller's office, and the homes of Traffic Court Judge Robert Mulgrew and Lorraine DiSpaldo, a Keller aide.

Last September, federal agents arrested Mulgrew and DiSpaldo on charges of wire

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

---

Copyright 2013 Philadelphia Newspapers, LLC All Rights Reserved

Accounting • Income Tax

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved