Tammy is a senior manager at Grassi & Co. with almost 20 years in in public accounting in auditing, due diligence, technical accounting consulting and securities litigation. In her current role in Quality Control, Tammy performs accounting research to assist audit teams with complex issues such as derivatives, leasing, convertible financing and business combinations. She manages risk to the firm and clients by identifying potential accounting issues in clients' financial statements and proposed transactions.

Prior to joining Grassi, Tammy spent 10 years at a Big Four firm in auditing and due diligence and managed SEC engagements in financial services, manufacturing and energy. A highlight of her tenure is a three-month engagement in Korea, where she helped translate the financial statements of a major bank from Korean GAAP to U.S. GAAP.

Tammy has a Master in Accounting degree from The University of Texas at Austin and a Bachelor of Science from Cornell University. Tammy holds CPA licenses in New York and Texas and is a Certified Fraud Examiner.

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.
