

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us has named Ron Ries as Partner of its Not-for-Profit Group in efforts to strengthen its ties to the nonprofit sector.

Taija Sparkman • Apr. 09, 2013

Accounting, tax and advisory services firm, WeiserMazars LLP, recently announced it has named Ron Ries as Partner of its Not-for-Profit Group in efforts to strengthen its ties to the nonprofit sector. Ries has more than 20 years of expertise working with nonprofit organizations, most recently as Chief Financial Officer at the Jewish Board of Family and Children's Services.

"Our Not-for-Profit Group is well positioned to meet the unique needs of this sector and Ron's expertise will complement the skills of our existing team," said Mitchell Lewis, partner-in-charge, Not-for-Profit Group, WeiserMazars. "Ron's hands-on experience in the not-for-profit field will provide us with additional insight into the unique accounting and management issues of clients in this space, allowing us to closely tailor our services to their needs."

Ries currently sits on the board of several nonprofit organizations and chairs the annual AICPA Not-for-Profit Financial Executive Forum. He serves as chair of the Audit Committee for Selfhelp Community Services and treasurer for Wall Street Technology Association.

"Ron's substantial technical and practical experience will be a valuable addition to the firm," said Douglas A. Phillips, managing partner, WeiserMazars. "His addition reinforces our already strong not-for-profit resources and demonstrates the depth of our commitment to the sector."

"It's great to be back in public accounting, leveraging my experience as CFO of a large social services organization to provide the best service possible to other not-for-profit organizations,” said Ries.

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved