

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Apr. 25, 2013

The Native American Contractors Association (NACA), has announced that it will hold its first annual conference in Palm Springs, California, at the Miramonte Hotel and Resort on November 11-13, 2013. The event will include a golf tournament at Indian Wells, trade show, and different learning tracks targeting small business concerns and federal contracting.

NACA's 1st Annual B2B Conference & Expo will feature three (3) different learning tracks that include: Getting Business Started and on the Right Course, Legislative Issues Impacting Small Business, and Contemporary Issues Impacting Small Business Federal Contractors. The conference will feature 60+ experts on small business matters.

"NACA's first annual conference will highlight small business issues and concerns, and will serve as a wonderful opportunity for the minority small business community to gain valuable business tools, and develop lasting relationships" stated Kevin Allis, NACA's Executive Director.

"Small businesses are the backbone to our nation's economy, and their success not only helps grow the American economy, it provides jobs, wealth and resources, and opportunities for disadvantaged communities. Although with a focus on Indian Country, NACA's conference has something to offer all small businesses!"

The complete 2013 conference agenda, online registration, and other conference information is available online now at www.nativecontractors.org.

The Native American Contractors Association is a national Native advocacy organization based in Washington, D.C., and represents Tribal, Alaska Native Corporations, and Native Hawaiian Organizations across the country. NACA seeks to protect the economic self-sufficiency of America's indigenous people that is

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved