SAN FRANCISCO — After receiving nearly 300 applications, Roger CPA Review has announced their 2013 Roger Spirit Scholarship recipients, selected from students across the nation. In addition to the Roger Spirit Scholarship, Roger CPA Review awards over 115 scholarships at individual campuses each year.

“Over the past several years our scholarship program has grown immensely,” said Kristin Lynes, Vice President of Roger CPA Review. “We are proud that we have been able to help so many students achieve their goal of becoming a CPA.”

The Roger CPA Review Scholarship Program was designed for exceptional students who host an enthusiastic spirit and a relentless commitment to their CPA goals. Additionally, it was established to relieve financial burden to CPA candidates who embody the Roger Spirit.

Based on future goals and ambitions, and how they embody the “Roger Spirit,” the following recipients will receive either a Platinum scholarship (full course), Gold Scholarship (half course), or a $250 Scholarship:

Amanda Wilkson, University of North Georgia, Georgia Asaya Ashour, Long Island University, New York Carly Guillory, Eastern Washington University, Washington Huixin Bonnie Li, San Jose State University, California Krystal Fletcher Gray, University of Houston, Texas Liana Snyder, University of Washington Tacoma, Washington Mark Dissen, George Washington University, Washington D.C.
