operations of the Long Island Tax Department including directing team members in compliance, tax planning, research and training.

Jun. 10, 2013

New York-based accounting ,tax and advisory services firm WeiserMazars LLP has named Vincent Paolucci, CPA as the Operational Leader of its Long Island Office Tax Department.

A partner at the firm since January 2012, he will be responsible for the day to day operations of the Long Island Tax Department including directing team members in compliance, tax planning, research and training. Additionally, Paolucci will join the firm's Tax Operations Committee. He will be replacing Donald Bender, who will continue to serve as a member of the firm's Tax Practice Board that is responsible for setting firm Policy.

"Vince is a trusted professional with years of experience and knowledge that will allow him to effectively serve as Operational Leader at our Long Island Office," said Andrew M. Cohen, Executive Committee member and Partner-in-Charge of WeiserMazars' Long Island practice. "We are thankful for Don's hard work and leadership and look forward to continuing to expand our Long Island practice."

A member of the American Institute of Certified Public Accountants and the New York State Society of Certified Public Accountants, Paolucci has over 30 years of experience in public accounting, focusing on public and middle-market companies, corporate closely-held businesses, individuals, partnerships, retirement, succession planning and tax planning and compliance. His expertise lies in representing clients in industries including medical equipment, consumer products and apparel, health care and manufacturing and distribution.
