

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

FIRM MANAGEMENT

Prestigious New York accounting firms announce merger

Effective August 1, 2013, the long established highly regarded firm of Schoenfeld Mendelsohn Goldfarb LLP ("SMG") has merged into the firm of Janover LLC with offices in Garden City and Manhattan, New York.

Jul. 22, 2013

Garden City, NY – Effective August 1, 2013, the long established highly regarded firm of Schoenfeld Mendelsohn Goldfarb LLP ("SMG") has merged into the firm of Janover LLC with offices in Garden City and Manhattan, New York. The merger furthers Janover's reputation as one of Metropolitan New York's premier firms focused on providing the highest quality services for the needs of a diversified client base.

The partners of SMG, Herb Schoenfeld, CPA, Harvey H. Mendelsohn, CPA, Robert Goldfarb, CPA, and Patricia Weiss, CPA will continue in their existing roles in the combined firm. All of the partners of SMG are very active in the accounting profession. Robert Goldfarb, Managing Partner of SMG, currently serves on the Executive Committee of the Private Companies Practice Section and is an Editorial Advisor for the American Institute of CPAs, is a past President of the National Conference of CPA Practitioners, is a Diplomat of the American Board of Forensic Examiners and the American Board of Forensic Accounting, and has served on several committees of the New York State Society of CPAs. All four partners are active members of the AICPA and the New York State Society of CPAs.

“We are very proud of the more than 40 year history of our firm. We also recognize that the next step for our team and clients is to merge with a firm just as committed to high quality, enabling us to expand the platform of services we can offer to our local, regional, and national clients. We look forward to staying on the cutting edge of the changes so prevalent in today’s financial and accounting services markets”, said Robert Goldfarb, Managing Partner of SMG. Harvey Mendelsohn added, “Janover shares our philosophy of helping our clients grow and succeed, and the merger will broaden and deepen our existing industry specializations, enabling us to offer even more comprehensive business advice tailored to our clients.”

“The addition of SMG, their partners, and all of their team members to our firm will have a significant impact on the combined firm as we continue to strive to better serve our clients and the communities we operate in through our growing practice. We are enthusiastic about continuing the high level of service and expertise their firm has been known for,” said Mark Goodman, Managing Partner of Janover.

Transition Advisors, a leading merger and acquisition consulting firm exclusively serving the national accounting community, assisted in this transaction.

Firm Management • News • Accounting Firms • Firm Management •
mergers & acquisitions • New York • partners

CPAPA is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2023 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved