

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

teaching methods

Aug. 21, 2013

American Accounting Association

Accounting professors Steve Glover and Doug Prawitt, from Brigham Young University's School of Accountancy and Sam Ranzilla, Rob Chevalier, and George Herrmann from KPMG LLP received the 2013 Wildman Medal earlier this month at the American Accounting Association (AAA) annual meeting in Anaheim, California.

Sponsored by the Deloitte Foundation, the awardees were recognized for their monograph entitled "Elevating Professional Judgment in Auditing and Accounting: The KPMG Professional Judgment Framework."

"The Wildman Medal recognizes educators, and, in this case, a collaboration between academia and practice, for their leading edge research and unwavering commitment to advancing the theory and practice of accounting. This work is important to the growth of our profession and its practitioners," said Shaun Budnik, partner, Deloitte LLP and president of the Deloitte Foundation. “We congratulate

Hello. It looks like you’re using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

The American Taxation Association (ATA) Teaching Innovation Award was also presented during the AAA annual meeting at the ATA luncheon. This year, professors G. Ryan Huston and Janet M. Huston from the University of South Florida were honored for their submission titled “Life’s Two Certainties: An Estate and Gift Taxation Case.”

Established in 1994, the ATA Teaching Innovation Award is presented annually to tax professors whose innovative teaching techniques encourage critical thinking and enhance the overall learning experience. Both professors were each presented a $2,500 award.

Accounting • Auditing • Firm Management

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved