Ryan, a leading global tax services firm with the largest indirect and property tax practices in North America, wins Stevie Award for 2013 Company of the Year in the Accounting, Banking, and Financial Services category by the International Business Awards.

Nicknamed the Stevie Awards from the Greek word “crowned,” this International Business Awards program started ten years ago to honor companies that achieve outstanding performance worldwide. Ryan is one of 70 Gold Stevie Award winners in its respective industry and performance categories from the United States, South Korea, Turkey, United Kingdom, Spain, Canada, China, Australia, Singapore, Philippines, and United Arab Emirates. Gold Stevie winners were selected from more than 3,300 nominations received from organizations in more than 50 nations.

Many factors contributed to this prestigious honor, including Ryan’s successful implementation of an internationally recognized flexible work environment, called myRyan, which changed the measurement of work performance from hours worked to results achieved. This initiative has delivered tremendous dividends for the firm, its clients, and its employees. For example, Ryan has dramatically improved employee retention and satisfaction, while demonstrating solid year-over-year revenue growth.

The firm grew revenues 51% last year alone. Most importantly, Ryan employees have achieved the highest client satisfaction ratings in the history of the firm and became the first company ever to achieve the prestigious International Customer Service
