

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us changed jobs and/or been promoted.

Taija Sparkman • Sep. 06, 2013

Grant Thornton LLP Names New Partners

Grant Thornton LLP recently named Edward Miller, CPA to audit partner and Steven Winter, CPA to tax partner in its New York office; Jacqueline Akerblom, CPA as the firm's West region managing partner; and David Sites, CPA as International Tax Services partner and David Tyler as Healthcare Advisory Services principal in the firm's Atlanta office. Miller has a variety of experience serving clients in the higher education and not-for-profit sectors. He is a member of Grant Thornton's National Not-for-Profit Leadership Team and received his bachelor's degree in accounting from State University of New York at Albany.

Winter has both private and public company experience specializing in providing professional tax services to hedge funds, private equity funds, broker-dealers, asset managers, investment partnerships, and corporations. Winter received a master's of business administration degree and a bachelor's degree in business administration in accounting from Pace University.

Akerblom will be responsible for all operations, including client service and professional matters for eleven offices in the western United States and she will continue to lead the firm's Southern California practice as the office managing partner. Akerblom received her bachelor's degree in business administration in accounting from the University of San Diego.

Sites has served a wide array of companies in various industries, including manufacturing, technology, and retail. His experience includes cross-border planning and structuring, repatriation planning, foreign tax credit planning, and industry-specific research on a wide variety of issues involving federal and international tax. Sites received his bachelor's degree in accounting from the

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Gross, Mendelsohn & Associates, P.A. Adds to Its Staff

Gross, Mendelsohn & Associates, P.A. recently added Medley McGuire to its Technology Solutions Group as an account executive. McGuire graduated from University of Maryland with a bachelor's degree and has five years of experience in sales.

LMBC Names New Partner

LBMC recently named Scott A. Womack, ASA, CFFA to partner in LBMC's Valuation Advisory, Litigation Support/Forensic Accounting and Business Transition Services. Womack experience includes estate planning attorneys in federal and state valuation matters; family law attorneys in divorce matters (including business valuation, forensic accounting, division of marital estate, etc.); and small business owners in the potential sale of their businesses. He graduated from Baylor University with his bachelor's degree in business administration.

Advisory • Staffing • Technology

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved