professional education and CPA exam preparation division of Bisk.

Sep. 10, 2013

The tax and accounting branch of Thomson Reuters has acquired the continuing professional education and CPA exam preparation division of Bisk Education, Inc. Bisk is one of the largest providers of online education and professional continuing education.

The best-known brand of Bisk's Continuing Professional Education and Test Prep includes CPEasy, which offers a comprehensive set of CPE courses and subscription packages that CPAs can use to maintain their licenses. Also included in the acquisition is CPA Review, which covers the four areas tested for the universal CPA examination.

The acquisition will expand Thomson Reuter's Checkpoint Learning solution, Checkpoint Learning provides CPE compliance tracking, learning management and curriculum development. Users can purchase and complete courses individually or as a part of a subscription package.

"We welcome the Bisk Continuing Professional Education and Test Prep teams and their customers into the Thomson Reuters family," Koskay continued. "The addition of the employees dedicated to this business will bring critical talent, knowledge and expertise to Thomson Reuters."

The Bisk staff joining Thomson Reuters will continue to be headquartered in Tampa, Florida. Customers should continue to use the same phone and email contacts to reach company representatives.
