“The annual Impact Showcase is both a testament to the impact that entrepreneurs are making on our economy, and an inspiration to aspiring entrepreneurs,” said Sarah Green, co-founder, Impact Showcase. “We are proud of all of the entrepreneurs on the 2013 Impact Showcase and pleased to support them by celebrating the spirit, dedication and hard work that has made them successful entrepreneurs.”

In early 2013, entrepreneurs meeting the minimum criteria from across the country were invited by Impact to apply for the Impact Showcase. Applications were then reviewed by the 2013 Impact Academy who are among the United States' leading entrepreneurs, including Kay Koplovitz, founder, USA Network & SciFi Channel & chairman, Springboard Enterprises; Tony Hsieh, CEO, Zappos; and Mike Delazzer, founder, Redbox.
