“The abundance of available capital combined with stabilizing economic conditions has contributed to the uptick in the number of companies filing for an IPO in recent months,” stated Dan Tiemann, Americas Transactions & Restructuring lead for KPMG. “We expect the strong pipeline of IPOs to continue into 2014, especially as we see broader market conditions continue to improve and U.S. companies take advantage of the IPO benefits under the JOBS Act.”

In addition to KPMG, other NYSE IPO Guide contributors include Cleary Gottlieb Steen & Hamilton LLP, J.P. Morgan, Ipreo, FTI Consulting, Fenwick & West LLP, Marsh, Morrow & Co., LLC, and RR Donnelley.
