New York, NY – November 21, 2013 – The international accounting firm WeiserMazars LLP has completed a merger with The Resnick Druckman Group LLC, a full-service accounting, tax and consulting firm with offices in New York City and Long Island. Goldenberg Consulting Group, Inc. has advised on the transaction.

Resnick Druckman's 33 employees, including seven Partners and Principals and three Directors, will join WeiserMazars' New York City and Woodbury, Long Island offices, building on the existing strength of the firm's Manufacturing & Distribution and Consumer Products Groups, as well as its Real Estate, Health Care and Tax Advisory Practices. WeiserMazars has more than 100 partners and approximately 650 professionals based out of six U.S. offices, Israel and the Cayman Islands.

"We are delighted to have the highly regarded industry leaders of The Resnick Druckman Group, and their dedicated team, joining our firm," said WeiserMazars' Managing Partner, Douglas A. Phillips. "The addition of this experienced team significantly enhances our capabilities and service offerings, positioning our firm for further growth, especially in such sectors as consumer products, apparel, real estate, technology and health care."

The Resnick Druckman Group, founded in 1937, is a well-respected regional practice representing high net worth individuals, businesses and their owners, across a range of industries including fashion and home furnishings, real estate and construction, manufacturing and distribution, healthcare, family/closely held businesses and non-profit organizations. Their services include accounting and auditing, tax services, litigation support, business consulting and wealth management.

“WeiserMazars represents the best in professional talent and client service
