them to leverage resources of a global accounting firm and provide a tremendous value proposition to their clients.

Nov. 26, 2013

MELVILLE, N.Y. — Nussbaum Yates Berg Klein & Wolpow, LLP (NYBKW), a top firm in the tri-state area, has become the newest member of McGladrey Alliance, an affiliation of independent accounting firms associated with McGladrey LLP. As a McGladrey Alliance member, NYBKW will now leverage the resources of a global accounting firm, allowing them to broaden service offerings to their clients and increase in-house efficiencies.

NYBKW was formed in 1990 when some of Long Island's leading CPAs decided to pool their resources together to provide a new level of client service to the Long Island and New York business communities. With a wealth of experience, the firm provides a full spectrum of audit & assurance, tax, business consulting, mergers and acquisitions and family office services to a very diverse client base, with a primary focus on closely held middle-market businesses and high net worth individuals. The firm's industry expertise includes distribution, manufacturing, retail, healthcare, real estate, construction, professional services, entertainment, food and beverage, not for profit organizations, new-media and technology.

“Our firm prides itself on providing the highest quality of service and expertise to our clients,” said Steven Wolpow, Managing Partner. “Joining McGladrey Alliance will allow us to offer our clients access to the resources of one of the world's largest and most highly regarded firms while still maintaining the intimacy of dealing with a firm of our size; thus creating an enormous value proposition for our clients.”

NYBKW is led by eight partners and employs approximately 50 professionals. NYBKW remains an independently owned firm and has not been acquired or merged and has not changed its status as a result of this affiliation. Its membership was
