Payments and billing services provider Billtrust has announced the addition of two new members of its board of directors. Mark Miller, Chairman/CEO of consumer digital services company Allconnect, and Pete Sinisgalli, director and former President/CEO of supply chain solutions leader Manhattan Associates, have been named to the board effective today.

Through their diverse backgrounds in the financial, consumer services, credit and supply chain service industries, Miller and Sinisgalli will provide unique strategic counsel as Billtrust continues to address its corporate and marketplace needs.

“One of the great strengths of Billtrust’s board of directors is that it never remains static. As our needs grow and change, we’ve been able to continually attract top talent that matches our stage of development,” said Flint Lane, Billtrust Founder and CEO. “Pete and Mark provide sage experience as we not only transition to a much-larger company, but also evaluate our options on a wide range of topics related to marketing, finance and strategic partnerships. These are highly skilled, highly engaged individuals who I’m sure will give us exceptional counsel.”

major role in that company's rise in the supply chain service industry. Before joining Manhattan Associates, Sinisgalli was President/CEO of NewRoads, Inc., a privately held third-party fulfillment provider; he also spent six years at CheckFree Corporation, rising to become CheckFree's President. Sinisgalli also lent his executive skills to The Dun & Bradstreet Corporation, where his last position was Executive Vice President and CFO for Dun & Bradstreet Software.

The addition of Mark Miller and Pete Sinisgalli provide further momentum to Billtrust's successful corporate governance. Over the past 18 months the company closed a $25 million funding round from Bain Capital Ventures; announced technology integrations with Ariba, an SAP Company; completed an acquisition of Best Practice Systems; and unveiled a number of new services. The company has also been named to the well-known Inc. 500 for seven consecutive years.
