businesses be more efficient and also work more closely with their public accountants.”

“For many small businesses and firms, one of the most challenging things they struggle with is change,” she added. “How do they get where they want to go? And how do they train staff, in order to run their business better. My mission at Xero will be to help firms and small businesses become more successful.

Prior to Xero, Vetter was CPA Programs Leader for Intacct Corporation and the Key Accounts Manager for Intuit. She has also owned and operated a private accounting firm. She has an MBA from Nova Southeastern University and a BBA in accounting from the University of Cincinnati. She has served on various professional associations and organizations.
