To achieve these objectives, the IFRS Research Center will highlight ways for academics to participate in the standard-setting process and enable those engaged in research to stay informed about the IASB's research activities.

“We recognize the importance of high quality research to help the IASB develop financial reporting standards and assess the outcomes of those standards,” said IASB Chairman Hans Hoogervorst. “The research community has a particularly important role to play by undertaking analysis and research that is independent.
