webinars presented by Bisk CPEasy in June, July, and August.

Isaac M. O'Bannon • Jun. 02, 2014

Thomson Reuters will be offering two new, full-day tax and accounting and auditing webinars presented by Bisk CPEasy in June, July, and August.

These webinars will focus on key issues in the accounting, auditing, and governmental auditing space, as well as addressing hot topics facing tax practitioners. Topics include: FASB updates, governmental pensions, data analysis and fraud related to governments, QuickBooks, and updates on individual tax, repair regulations, exempt organizations, business entities, and the net investment income tax.

The first webinar, Key Issues in Accounting & Auditing: What CPAs Need to Know, is being presented on June 23, July 28, and August 25. The second webinar, Summer Sizzler! Hot Mid-Year Tax Topics for 2014, is being presented on June 24, June 30, July 15, and August 12.

Each webinar will provide eight hours of CPE credit, as well as the opportunity for attendees to interact live and receive guidance from expert presenters:

- Michele Knight, CPA, President of an independent accounting and technology firm
- E. Lynn Nichols, CPA, tax professional and longtime Bisk CPEasy presenter
- Kurt Oestrieher, CPA, Partner with a local CPA firm
- Christopher Pembroke, CPA, CGAP, tax and accounting professional
- Laurie Stillwell, CPA, PC, tax professional and long time Gear Up seminar presenter

“It is essential that practitioners brush up on key accounting and tax issues to best serve their diverse individual and business clients,” said Ken Koskay, senior vice president of learning products in the Tax & Accounting knowledge solutions

business of Thomson Reuters. “These webinars will help keep attendees well
