businesses nationally and around the globe, but, uniquely, also provides access to TAGLaw, a 'sister' alliance of highly respected law firms throughout the world. This will be a competitive advantage we can offer clients.”

“Adding a firm with the reputation of Cohen & Company is evidence of the value and strategic advantage TIAG provides to its members and their clients,” said Robert Sattin, President of TIAG. “More and more, we are hearing from firms who are looking for international relationships and who find that TIAG’s multidisciplinary approach, through our sister alliance TAGLaw, and high-caliber professional management are key differentiators in the marketplace. These are exciting times for TIAG and the TAG Alliances.”

Cohen & Company and its related entities have approximately 250 employees throughout its offices in Ohio, Wisconsin and Florida and is ranked in the top 100 CPA firms nationwide.
