OSCPA endorsed Justice French based on her priorities of consistency and judicial restraint, as well as her extensive record as a fair, impartial jurist.

OSCPA identified Justice Kennedy's record as a jurist, which upholds her firm commitment against legislating from the bench, as benefiting all Ohioans.

Steve Yost earns OSCP's endorsement for doing exactly what he said he would four years ago: emphasizing performance audits, eliminating unnecessary cost and red tape with government mandates and driving value to attest service recipients while reducing risk to taxpayers.

The Ohio Society of CPAs, established in 1908, represents more than 21,000 CPAs and accounting professionals in business, education, government and public accounting. The Ohio Society's members not only meet statutory and regulatory requirements as CPAs, but also embrace the highest standards of professional and ethical performance. This is achieved through ongoing professional education, comprehensive quality review and compliance with a strict Code of Professional Conduct.
