BerryDunn has hired three new tax professionals as part of the firm's ongoing tax practice expansion. Francesco Manzo, Senior Manager, is based in the firm's Manchester, New Hampshire, office. Kelly O'Connell, Tax Specialist, and Eugene Syrovatkin, Tax Senior, are based out of the firm's Portland office. They join a Tax team at BerryDunn that offers consulting and compliance on state and local, multi-state, and international matters for clients throughout New England and nationwide.

Francesco (Frank) Manzo, Senior Manager, worked most recently at Deloitte and before that at Fidelity Investments. He focuses on tax compliance and tax planning for pass-through entities, mergers and acquisitions transactions, and tax structuring for private equity and strategic corporate acquirers. Frank holds a BA in Economics from the University of New Hampshire and an MS in Accountancy from Bentley University, and he is currently completing an MS in Taxation at Bentley University.

Kelly O'Connell, Tax Specialist, comes to BerryDunn from Nixon Peabody, a large Boston law firm. She brings exhaustive knowledge of charitable trusts, mergers, fiduciary duties, and complex asset structures, and she has previous work experience
