clients' payroll system to ensure everything is in order.

Jan. 30, 2015

Now that the New Year has started, it's a great time to perform an audit of your clients' payroll system to ensure everything is in order.

The past few months were spent preparing clients for the upcoming year and making changes to employees' withholdings. Before the year gets ahead of you and it's business as usual, take the time to make sure that any changes were implemented
