Legacy Scholars program helps students defray the cost of their education, while helping instill a commitment to public service that the accounting profession is known for.”

The AICPA Legacy Scholars program, which was established in 2011, awards recipients with a one-year scholarship and uses service work to help them develop the soft skills, including leadership and communications, needed to maintain a successful career. Scholarship recipients plan, promote and execute an eight-hour service project each semester. The service activity must relate to accounting, serve the community and be meaningful to the student.

The AICPA Legacy Scholars program comprises four distinct awards:

- AICPA/Accountemps Student Scholarship
- AICPA Foundation Two-Year Transfer Scholarship
- AICPA John L. Carey Scholarship
- AICPA Scholarship for Minority Accounting Students

Scholarship funding is provided by contributions from the AICPA Foundation, Robert Half Accountemps, the New Jersey Society of CPAs, the Accounting Education Foundation of the Texas Society of CPAs, and the Virgin Islands Society of CPAs.

AICPA Legacy Scholars are Student Affiliate Members of the AICPA, which is a free membership option available to all currently enrolled college students. Each AICPA Legacy Scholar is assigned a coach to provide guidance on the student's service project and to advise on questions related to the profession and the work environment.

Students can find more information and apply online at ThisWayToCPA.com. The application deadline is April 1, 2015. Students can also use the National Scholarship
