represent all walks of life and attend schools of various sizes and rank all across the state.

Available scholarships include:

- Accounting Tuition Scholarship: Multiple scholarships of up to $4,000 each are available to students enrolled as a senior or graduate student.
- Accounting Textbook Scholarship: Multiple scholarships of up to $500 each are available to students enrolled as a junior, senior, or graduate student.
- Herman J. Neal Accounting Scholarship: Multiple scholarships of up to $4,000 each are available to African-American students enrolled as a junior, senior, or graduate student.
- Women's Executive Committee Advancing Women in Accounting Scholarship: Multiple scholarships of up to $4,000 each are available to high-achieving female students enrolled as a senior or graduate student.

“As I strive to reach my highest potential, this scholarship means so much more than its monetary value. This is an example of hope and opportunity. I am on a journey to play my part in making this world a better place, and it begins with my push for scholarly achievements,” said Kenneth Mason, a 2014 scholarship recipient.

The Illinois CPA Society Accounting Scholarship Program is funded by the CPA Endowment Fund of Illinois. The deadline for applications is April 1, 2015. For more information, visit the Illinois CPA Society's student programs page.
