Jun. 10, 2015

Economists are seeing a positive rebound in jobs as private sector employment increased in all four major regions and all nine U.S. Census Bureau Divisions during May 2015.

That's according to the monthly ADP Regional Employment Report, which is produced by ADP, a provider of payroll, business services and Human Capital Management \(HCM\) solutions, in collaboration with Moody's Analytics, Inc.

“Job growth in the South continues to slow due to lower oil prices as evidenced by
