Cares; to assisting young children with disabilities at the AHRC Special Olympics on Long Island; creating a "photo booth" at the Piscataway Senior Center in New Jersey; helping organize the St. Vincent de Paul Food Pantry in Chicago; and sorting children's clothes as part of the Cradles to Crayons' Giving Factory in Pennsylvania. WeiserMazars' 448-strong volunteer corps brought smiles and joy to hundreds of people in need and the dedicated organizations serving them.

"We are extremely proud of the enormous commitment that our employees demonstrated to their communities in response to our first Days of Service," noted Kenneth R. Pogrob, leading Partner of We Are WeiserMazars. "Giving back to the communities where we work and live is an integral part of the values that we foster at WeiserMazars, which emphasize team building and collaboration inside and outside of the workplace," added Mr. Pogrob.
