The American Institute of CPAs (AICPA) offered more than 40 recommendations to the Internal Revenue Service (IRS) last week for the Form 990, Return of Organization Exempt from Income Tax, and instructions.

The recommendations include adding thresholds throughout the instructions at the top of any schedule, part or line that has a specific threshold for reporting; clarifying the definitions of "control" and "related organization" (specifically, brother/sister organizations) in the glossary of instructions; making permanent optional reporting provided under Announcement 2012-19 pertaining to reporting of income from partnership interests; adding a definition for "person" as defined in Internal Revenue Code section 7701(a) (1), and clarifying that indirect lobbying through a portion of membership dues via a separate organization should be reported where the lobbying
