

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us skills. Each recipient of the AICPA/Accountemps Student Scholarship award will receive a $10,000 award for the 2015-2016 academic year.

Sep. 23, 2015

The four recipients of the 2015-2016 AICPA/Accountemps Student Scholarship award have been announced. The award, part of the American Institute of CPA's Legacy Scholars program, is given annually to undergraduate and graduate-level accounting students who plan to pursue their CPA license.

The recipients have demonstrated academic excellence and outstanding leadership skills. Each recipient of the AICPA/Accountemps Student Scholarship award will receive a $10,000 award for the 2015-2016 academic year.

"On behalf of the AICPA, I congratulate this year's recipients of the AICPA/Accountemps Student Scholarship award for their commitment to academic achievement," said Joanne Fiore, AICPA vice president of professional media, pathways and inclusion. "These dedicated students have the leadership skills to make great contributions to the accounting profession."

The four 2015-2016 AICPA/Accountemps Student Scholarship award recipients are listed in alphabetic order below:

- Stacy Bonds, North Carolina State University
- Nicole Exnicios, Tulane University
- Justin Korth, University of Nebraska at Omaha
- Laura Rudolph, University of Wisconsin, Madison

The AICPA/Accountemps Student Scholarship award is one of four scholarship awards available through the AICPA Legacy Scholars program. The program was created in 2011 and awards recipients a one-year AICPA scholarship while helping to develop the soft skills needed to sustain a successful career through service.

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us access to a coach to provide mentoring on the student's service events and to provide guidance on questions related to the profession.

The four scholarship award winners were chosen from more than 700 AICPA Legacy Scholarship applicants. Eligible applicants must have a minimum GPA of 3.0 and completed at least 30 semester hours in college-level coursework, including six semester hours in accounting. A task force comprised of AICPA Student Recruitment Committee members, CPA volunteers and Accountemps officials selected the recipients based on academic achievement; demonstration of leadership and volunteerism; and, overall commitment to becoming a licensed CPA.

"We congratulate the AICPA/Accountemps Scholarship award recipients on this exciting achievement," said Andrew Denka, executive vice president of Accountemps. "Their commitment to leadership and academic excellence positions them for success as they begin their accounting careers."

Accounting • AICPA • Firm Management

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved