

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Students

The program honors Ms. Washington Wylie, a trailblazer for minorities in the accounting profession, and advances diversity within the profession by building skills and presenting new opportunities for success to minority students.

Oct. 27, 2015

ILLINOIS CPA SOCIETY®

The Illinois CPA Society is seeking minority college students to apply for the Mary T. Washington Wylie Internship Preparation Program. The award-winning program helps minority students interested in the CPA profession prepare for entry-level

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

The program, hosted January 4-6, 2016, is a three-day, all expenses paid opportunity for up to 25 African American and other underrepresented minority accounting students selected to participate. At the end of the program, participating accounting firms, including Crowe Horwath LLP, Deloitte LLP, Ernst & Young LLP, Grant Thornton LLP, KPMG LLP, PricewaterhouseCoopers LLP, and Sikich LLP interview the students for a variety of paid internship opportunities. Additionally, all participants receive a $500 scholarship to help with educational expenses. The program is funded by donations to the CPA Endowment Fund of Illinois' Mary T. Washington Wylie Opportunity Fund.

"It was a life-changing experience that not only helped me grow as a student, but also as a future accounting professional. I would not have had an internship opportunity without this program," said Bryant Riley, Roosevelt University student, 2015 MTWW Scholar.

Students interested in the program can apply at www.icpas.org. The deadline for applications is November 24, 2015.

Accounting

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved