

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us who provide financial forensic accounting and business valuation services, and offers the Certified in Financial Forensics (CFF) and Accredited in Business Valuation (ABV)

...

Nov. 17, 2015

The American Institute of CPAs has announced the winners of two awards in the forensic and valuation practice areas. The awards were presented this week at the annual AICPA Forensic and Valuation Services Conference in Las Vegas. The Forensic & Litigation Services Volunteer of the Year Award was bestowed upon Michael Fahlman, CPA, CFF, managing director with Berkley Research Group in Phoenix,

Ariz. The Business Valuation Volunteer of the Year was awarded to Nathan DiNatale,

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

“These hard-working individuals are being honored for their tireless leadership and dedication in advancing both the forensic and litigation services and business valuation fields within the accounting profession,” said Jeannette Koger, CPA, CGMA, vice president of member specialization and credentialing at the AICPA. “We are thrilled to be recognizing both Michael and Nathan as volunteers of the year amongst their peers at the FVS Conference.”

Michael Fahlman currently serves as a member of the AICPA's Forensic and Litigation Services (FLS) Committee and is the current chair of the FLS Damages Task Force. He is a regular contributor and reviewer of content for both the AICPA and the American Bar Association (ABA) as well as a conference and webcast speaker. Fahlman teaches at universities, bar associations, and law firms on the topics of forensic accounting and damages. He also is a member of the Arizona Society of CPAs' Fraud and Litigation Committee, as well as co-chair of the Economic Damages subcommittee of the ABA.

In addition to receiving this award, Fahlman has also been recognized as a recipient of the 2015 Forensic & Valuation Services (FVS) Standing Ovation Program for professional achievement.

Nathan DiNatale, who just finished his third year of service on the AICPA's Business Valuation Committee, has helped develop quick reference guides, assisted on the coordination and presentation of important webcasts, and authored several articles for AICPA publications. DiNatale's involvement also has been instrumental in the development of the AICPA FVS Conference, by serving as a member of the FVS Conference Steering Committee for two years. He speaks nationally and is an author on valuation topics> DiNatale is currently the ABV Champion for the state of Maryland.

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved