CohnReznick LLP Director Inducted into Affordable Housing Hall of Fame; Firm Adds New Partner and Completes First Phase of Headquarters Relocation

CohnReznick LLP recently announced the induction of Bob Moss, Principal and National Director of Government Affairs into the Affordable Housing Hall of Fame and the selection of Raymond Baggeri, CPA as a partner. Moss joins two other CohnReznick leaders who have been inducted: the late David Reznick, co-founder and Chairman of the Board of Reznick Group, P.C., in 2010 and Jeanne Peterson, a Director at CohnReznick, in 2013. Moss has provided testimony on the low-income housing tax credit on behalf of over 450 national housing organizations before the full House Ways and Means Committee on Tax Credit Reform and Residential Real Estate hearings and currently serves as chairman of the Housing Advisory Group. He is also Vice President of the National Leased Housing Association and led the formation of the Council of Independent State Housing.

Baggeri is a member of the firm's Retail and Consumer Products Industry Practice with more than 15 years of accounting experience in the retail and consumer products industry. His expertise is in financial planning, revenue recognition, joint ventures, acquisitions and divestitures, budgeting, reporting, analysis and business management for large privately-held companies. Baggeri graduated from Montclair State University with a Bachelor of Science with concentrations in Accounting and Finance.

CohnReznick also announced the completion of the first phase of its move to new headquarters location. The new location represents a significant expansion and upgrade for the firm's national headquarters and features state-of-the-art work spaces and collaborative meeting areas completely customized for CohnReznick's growth plan. Approximately half of the firm's New York employees have moved into
