Furlane has been named Intuit's Reseller Partner of the Year for 2015, marking the fifth time the company has received the honor. Furlane is a provider of bookkeeping and consulting services in Intuit QuickBooks, QuickBooks Point of Sale and QuickBooks Enterprise Solutions.

"Furlane's reputation is built on three pillars: assisting clients to find the right tools to manage their operations, helping clients integrate those tools into their business processes and consistently delivering value," said Marjorie Adams, president and CEO. Furlane had triple-digit growth in QuickBooks Enterprise Solutions last year.

"Furlane's broad expertise in all of Intuit's products gives them the ability to provide exceptional service to QuickBooks' users," said Simon Pass, sales leader for the Intuit Reseller Program. "As an Intuit Premier Reseller, we count on solutions Furlane provides to small- and mid-sized businesses all over the country. They are an important part of Intuit's Reseller channel."
