Wolters Kluwer Tax & Accounting, the maker of professional tax, accounting and audit software under the CCH brand, is realigning its North American and U.S. markets.

The new organization, Wolters Kluwer Tax & Accounting North America, will be led by Jason Marx as CEO, where he will report to Karen Abramson, CEO of the parent Wolters Kluwer Tax & Accounting. The North America unit will combine all tax and accounting software businesses in North America, and will be organized by customer segment, including Small Firm Professionals, Medium and Large Firm Professionals, and Corporations. The Canadian operation will now also report into the new North American business unit.
