The National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) has launched a new service – CPA Experience Verification. This service was created in response to the accounting profession's increasing need for a more coherent and standardized experience validation and verification process for international and domestic CPA licensure applicants.

Through this efficient experience verification process, applicants seeking licensure as certified public accountants (CPAs) in the United States will be paired with a NASBA client manager to guide them through the application process, followed by verification of work experience by DataFlow Group – a global provider of specialized Primary Source Verification (PSV) solutions – and an interview with a licensed CPA to further validate the applicant's requisite experience and determine if the applicant is qualified for licensure.

To apply for the Experience Verification service, applicants must meet the following

Ken L. Bishop, President and CEO of NASBA, shared, "The launch of the Experience Verification service directly aligns with our mission of enhancing the effectiveness of the Boards of Accountancy. It is a much needed service for international and domestic CPA candidates."

NASBA's Experience Verification service is currently available in the following U.S. Jurisdictions:

Accounting • Firm Management

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.
