Reuters. “Auditors can now plan the engagement, complete compliance audit programs and add, complete, and manage any other work necessary to document their audit procedures—all without leaving the SMART Practice Aids application.”

PPC's SMART Practice Aids – Single Audit Suite enables users to:

- Plan and execute their single audit engagements from beginning to end — including preparation and electronic signoff for practice aids, federal award audit programs, and compliance audit programs.
- Complete Checkpoint Tools documents related to their single audit, such as the Federal Programs, Risk of Material Noncompliance Assessment Worksheet, Inherent Risk of Noncompliance Assessment Form and Compliance Testing Worksheet.
- Get expert guidance and practical considerations while using the new suite with supporting links to subscribed guides and standards on Checkpoint.
- Roll forward relevant information on planning forms, federal award audit programs, and award tracking for use in subsequent single audits.
