Montage Services, Inc. has provided inbound and outbound international structuring and tax advice, finance and business consulting services since 2003. Through its main offices in San Francisco and London, the firm has a well-earned reputation for helping clients manage their tax exposure and control their risk.

“We’ve worked hard to build a business that’s known for delivering value, fantastic client service and unmatched expertise to growing businesses,” said Scott Wentz, managing director and founder, Montage Services. “As part of the Radius family we can continue to pursue that objective with even more resources and greater opportunity.”

The existing Radius team in San Francisco will immediately consolidate within Montage’s office. Together with its office in San Jose, Radius now has more than 35 professionals dedicated to helping clients on the West Coast streamline and simplify their global expansion and operations.
