

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us analysis of complex state compliance questions for multi-tier partnerships and S Corporations with a presence in multiple states.

Jun. 21, 2016

Thomson Reuters has released Checkpoint State Clear Comply, which simplifies the analysis of complex state compliance questions for multi-tier partnerships and S Corporations with a presence in multiple states.

Tax professionals can use the exclusive logic in the tool to highlight nexus flow-up issues and easily generate comprehensive reports covering the necessary requirements for composite returns, non-resident withholding and annual returns.

“This is a product that I wish would have existed a while ago,” said Darian Allen,

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

Thomson Reuters Checkpoint State Clear Comply maintains up-to-date state filing compliance requirements and reduces the risk of missed filings due to changing requirements in different states. It eliminates time-consuming research by creating reports with critical compliance requirements for state filings on partnerships and S Corporations and allows users to export reports for audit purposes.

To learn more, visit tax.tr.com/StateComply.

ESG • State and Local Taxes

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved