

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

2016 start of the U.S. Department of Labor's overtime rules. They will examine the new rules and explain how employers can minimize their costs and prepare for the ...

Jun. 21, 2016

Grants Management Systems, Inc. (GMS), accounting and revolving loan software for nonprofit organizations provider has announced its partnership with Human Resource Consultant, Drake Maynard, and University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill, School of Government Professor, Diane M. Juffras, to host a live webinar titled

Hello. It looks like you're using an ad blocker that may prevent our website from working properly. To receive the best experience possible, please make sure any blockers are switched off and refresh the page.

If you have any questions or need help you can email us

During the webinar, presenters Maynard and Juffras, will outline the December 1, 2016 start of the U.S. Department of Labor's overtime rules. They will examine the new rules and explain how employers can minimize their costs and prepare for the disruption it will cause in their workplace.

"This is a very significant change for employers. Nonprofits must understand, in entirety, what the rules state and what they can do now in order to prepare. Diane and I look forward to helping nonprofit human resource and accounting professionals prepare," said Maynard.

For more information or to register for the webinar, visit <http://www.gmsactg.com/new-flsa-overtime-rules.html>.

Accounting • Payroll

CPA Practice Advisor is registered with the National Association of State Boards of Accountancy (NASBA) as a sponsor of continuing professional education on the National Registry of CPE Sponsors.

© 2024 Firmworks, LLC. All rights reserved