"Since bringing Josh on last fall, Cloudnine has enjoyed an unprecedented season of healthy growth. He is an extraordinary leader. It is time to fully empower him with the operations of the company." Said Robert, "In addition, positioning Josh as President will allow me to drive our vision for the future. I'm excited to focus on my role as Founder and CEO."

A family man, living in Southern California, with his wife and five children, Josh possesses a depth of experience helping organizations increase their clarity, impact, and health. An empowering leader, Josh helps his team develop their strengths and positions them for maximum impact.

"We believe that cloud hosting technology is no longer an innovative idea, but an adoption that is critical to the continued success of businesses everywhere," said Josh. "The advances in cloud technology can be overwhelming to business owners and managers. It's our privilege to make the power of the cloud accessible to the SMB market."
