The infographic is a green-themed graphic divided into several sections. At the top left, it features the LedgeDocs logo, which consists of a stylized 'L' and 'D' inside a square, with the text 'LEDGERDOCS' and 'QUICKBOOKS ONLINE INTEGRATION' below it. To the right of the logo is a vertical list of four numbered steps: 1. FIND DOCUMENTS IN LEDGERDOCS, 2. ADD CONVERSATION NOTES & TAGS, 3. CREATE QBO TRANSACTIONS & FILE AWAY, and 4. VIEW FILED DOCUMENTS FROM QBO. Below the logo, there are four more sections. The first section on the left has a clock icon and the text '1-CLICK CREATE QBO TRANSACTION WITH AN ATTACHED DOCUMENT'. The second section has a speech bubble icon and the text 'QUICKLY VIEW SOURCE DOCUMENTS' and 'WITH NOTES & TAGS FROM TRANSACTIONS IN QUESTION'. The third section has a speedometer icon and the text '30% MORE EFFICIENT BOOKKEEPING'. The fourth section on the right has the text 'NOW AVAILABLE APPS.COM' and the QuickBooks logo (qb) inside a cloud shape.

“We are delighted to have been a part of Fujitsu’s cloud-based product line” stated LedgerDocs CEO and Founder, Wayne Zielke. “One of the most difficult parts of the bookkeeping and accounting process is receiving and finding documents – this integration makes sharing files between the business owner and their bookkeeper even easier.”

ScanSnap Cloud is now available for all new and current ScanSnap iX Series customers in Japan and North America, and offers the ability for users to send their documents to today’s most popular cloud-based services, including Dropbox, Evernote, Expensify, Google, OneDrive, and LedgerDocs. Customers can download ScanSnap Cloud for free via www.ScanSnapCloud.com, while also signing up for a free 14 day trial of LedgerDocs at www.LedgerDocs.com.

“We are constantly developing new ways to increase the value, functionality and simplicity of the ScanSnap product line and effectively increase our customers work/life productivity,” said Scott Francis, senior VP of product management, Fujitsu Computer Products of America, Inc. “Combining the ease-of-use of ScanSnap scanners with ScanSnap Cloud’s seamless integration to a variety of popular cloud services further validates our commitment to providing the industry’s most comprehensive scanning solutions.”
